Getting to Know... Alderman Mark Steuer

-I am a native of Milwaukee and graduated from Don Bosco High School.
 -I am the oldest of 9 children to Howie and Alice Steuer.
 -I graduated from UW-Madison with a BS in Cartography (mapmaking).
 -I was a Cartographer for 3 years with Milwaukee Map Service (1978-1981).
 -I then became the Cartographer for the Green Bay - Brown County Planning Department (1981-2005).
 -Budget cuts in 2006 changed my career. I ended up going to school at NWTC for Supply Chain Management/Logistics.
 -Other jobs have included being a GIS Project Manager in Madison, a City Appraiser, a City Bus Dispatcher, a Statistician for FOX Sports, a Wine Steward at Captain's Walk Winery, a featured extra in "Public Enemies" (the movie with Johnny Depp), and a Special Needs Teacher at Aspiro and NEW Curative.
 -I was elected into my first run for office in April 2012 as Alderman of District 10. I chair the Protection & Welfare Commission and am on the Historic Preservation Commission for Green Bay.
 -I am presently the President of the Brown County Historical Society and the Vice-President of the Brown County Trust for Historic Preservation.
 -I am a published author, artist, and poet.
 -I am married to Martha for 23 years and am a father to Ian (19) who is a sophomore at UWGB in Environmental Studies and Emily (15) who is a sophomore at GB Southwest High School. Both children are athletes and musicians as well.
 -Personal quote: "Blessed are the mapmakers. They draw nations close together"
